FIRST WAR NEWS.

Daily Paper Six Months for $1.

The Monitor can get you a daily paper giving all the latest, best and most authentic war news, six months for $1. Having made special arrangements with the Boston Record we are authorized to take subscriptions at present for $2 a year or six months for $1. This is the greatest bargain in a daily paper ever offered. The Record is a good paper and being an evening paper reaches you on the rural route the morning after it is printed. And the evening paper is noticeable in its early war news. An evening paper is far ahead of a morning paper on the news of the great European war because 5 o'clock in Boston is 10 o'clock at night in London and nearly midnight in the heart of the war district. Wherefore, the news of daylight—the most important of all—comes in the afternoon press and is repeated in the morning papers. So the lead of the evening paper is very marked in this war—probably the greatest the world has ever seen. You ought to keep posted.

Take advantage of this offer while it lasts. Clip this adv., fill in below, pin a dollar bill to it and mail. Do it NOW. We'll do the rest, and you'll get a daily with all the war news every morning for six months.

Monitor, Barton, Vt.

Gentlemen:

Elsie Riemann was taken very suddenly Saturday with appendicitis and taken that day to the hospital at St. Johnsbury. The operation although serious is thought to be successful. She has the best wishes of all her friends for speedy recovery.

THE loss of a large number of Maple Trees during the recent great storm is a loss much to be regretted, it should be a real lesson to any who are tempted to cut away all the large timber around their sugar places because a good sugar orchard is so valuable an asset to any farm that every means possible should be used to protect and preserve it.

Now let us not be discouraged because we have had one serious storm, none of us remember one like it and we will probably not have another for as many years more. Let us get after every thrifty maple and be ready to tap it next spring, don't let one good one stand idle.

If needing Sap Buckets we advise getting orders in at once. It looks as though there would be either a shortage or higher prices. We are selling now at several cents each under real present value because we had some stock on hand but when this lot is sold we can only guess what the price will be.

At the fairs through the state the sugar makers have been enthusiasts for the Monarch and many orders are already booked.

Fall is the ideal time to get your new rig set up.

A very interesting game of ball was played on Worboys field Saturday, Sept. 25, between the Stars and Derby. The teams were evenly matched and it was a pitchers' battle from start to finish besides some fast work in the field. The Stars scored in the 5th and 6th innings, while Derby waited until the 8th. The final score was 2-1 in favor of the Stars.

Helios Alias Elias.

We may pass as good enough the Russian aviators' reason for making the prophet Elijah their patron saint—his ascent to heaven in a chariot of fire. But there is a curious point in connection with the fact that so many hilltops in Greece are dedicated to and named after Elijah—or, at any rate, after St. Elias—for some will have it that the particular saint thus commemorated is not the Old Testament prophet, but a hermit of the fourth Christian century. It seems pretty well established that in pagan times these hills were sacred to the sun—Helios—and that the name has been neatly adapted to suit Christian requirements.—London Chronicle.

The Sexes in Church.

The separation of the sexes seems to have been formerly by no means an uncommon practice in the Church of England. In fact, Edward VI.'s prayer book specially mentions that at the communion service "the men shall tarry on one side and the women on the other." The papers of a church in Westmorland include elaborate directions for the division of the sexes at its services. All wedded men were to be placed first before any of the young men, and all young wives were to "forbear and come not at their mother-in-law's forms"—this was presumably before the days of the pew—"as long as their mother-in-law lives."—London Standard.

Spanish Cedar.

Only one wood, Spanish cedar (Cedrela odorata) is commonly used for cigar boxes. Sometimes a cheaper wood may form the basis of the box, with paper thin veneers of the tropical cedar over it.

TEARS, IDLE TEARS.

Tears, idle tears, I know not what they mean. Tears from the depth of some divine despair

Rise in the heart and gather in the eyes, In looking on the happy autumn fields

And thinking of the days that are no more.

Fresh as the first beam glittering on a sail That brings our friends up from the underworld.

Sad as the last which reddens over one That sinks with all we love below the verge;

So sad, so fresh, the days that are no more.

Ah, sad and strange as in dark summer dawns The earliest pipe of half-awakened birds

To dying ears, when unto dying eyes The casement slowly grows a glimmering square;

So sad, so strange, the days that are no more.

Dear as remembered kisses after death And sweet as those by hopeless fancy feigned,

On lips that are for others; deep as love, Deep as first love and wild with all its regret.

Oh, death in life, the days that are no more!

—Alfred Tennyson.
